

NHF is thrilled to announce that the 75th Annual Bleeding Disorders Conference (BDC) will take place from August 17 to 19, 2023, in National Harbor, Maryland (DC Area), at the beautiful Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center! Join us for three full days of educational sessions, networking opportunities, and access to our exhibit hall. Your registration includes entrance to our Opening Session, Awards Luncheon, and our exciting Final Night Event. We also have an Educational Kids Program available for children 12 years old and younger.

For more information about BDC, visit the NHF BDC Website.

The Idaho Chapter will be awarding one $2000 scholarship and Registration fee for One person to help an individual or family attend this year's Bleeding Disorders Conference.

Who can apply: Applicants must:

- Be a resident of Idaho who has been diagnosed with a bleeding disorder by a hematologist or be a caregiver of an Idaho resident who has a diagnosed bleeding disorder.
- Not be employed by a pharmaceutical manufacturer or specialty pharmacy serving the bleeding disorders community.
- Not receiving assistance from NHF or another Chapter to attend the Bleeding Disorders Conference. Preference will be given to individuals/families involved in the Nevada bleeding disorders community.

Eligibility and selection process: Applications will be evaluated by a review committee. This scholarship will be awarded based on a completed application, answers to questions, and community service to the hemophilia community. The recipients will be notified by Friday, May 19th, and will receive funding after attending the Bleeding Disorders Conference 2023.

Please note: Funds can be used for hotel accommodation, registration, flights, transportation to and from the airport, and airport parking. The recipient will need to keep receipts for these purchases. The recipient(s) must attend 80% of educational sessions in order to be reimbursed for expenses.

Deadline: All completed applications must be received no later than Monday, May 15th. Applications will NOT be considered unless all materials are received by this date.
